VETERAN'S CLUB HITS THE BIG TIME

When your club committee started early planning for the National Championships to be held in Melbourne over the Easter holiday period, initial budget estimates indicated a total cost of close to $10,000 for the four days.

This seemed to be too much to be rounded up by a bunch of amateur fund-raisers, mostly working at full-time jobs. It was decided to engage the services of Tom Worrell and his company Sportsplan Marketing to co-ordinate all of the aspects of the Championships, from signing up a corporate sponsor, to printing, T-shirts and publicity.

It was very good news indeed to hear that Australian Fixed Trusts, "veterans" of the Australian business world with more than fifty years experience in their field, had agreed to be the main sponsor.

The official airline Ansett also made a generous ongoing sponsorship commitment on a national basis.

Following the successful financial arrangements, it was agreed a Media Release was necessary, and Tom Worrell organised a small function on February 8th at the Regent (Wentworth) Hotel. Invitations were sent to a selection of Veteran Club members who were considered to be newsworthy, well known world class achievers Judy Follock, Ron Clarke, Herb Elliott, Merv Lincoln, Tony Cook, Trevor Vincent, interesting achievers Dot Browne, Roger DeCastella, Stan Nicholls, Adrienne Beames, and to talk to them all and photograph and film some of them, representatives from press, radio and television sporting departments.

The Hon. Jeff Kennett, leader of the opposition, opened the proceedings delightfully. He quite obviously can hardly wait to become eligible to join the Veterans himself.

It was a very successful and worthwhile couple of hours and much credit must go to our President, Ted McDonald for getting the story across loud and clear to all of the media present. The smooth running was assured by Tom Worrell with a helping hand from some committee members.

The measure of the success was seen in newspaper and television items that followed, and no doubt many of you caught some of them. For those of you who are able to exist without the box or the daily rag, the transcript of the Media Release is included here for your information.

MEDIA RELEASE

Organisers expect 1,000 veteran athletes from around Australia to compete in the 11th National Veterans Athletic Championships to be staged in Melbourne over the Easter holiday period April 1 - 4.

Announcing the major sponsorship of the Championships, the Victorian Manager of Australian Fixed Trusts Limited, Mr. Robert F. Palmer said, "That A.F.T. was pleased to be associated with Veterans athletics which provided organised recreational activity for Australian men and women in age groups ranging from 35 - 80+ years."

"We see in Veterans' Athletics the opportunity to become identified with a cross section of the Australian community who visibly demonstrate the benefits of healthy activity in later years."

"The A.F.T. National Championships will give our customers and the public the opportunity to watch their athletic heroes of the 50's and 60's again battling it out now as veterans."

Mr. Ted McDonald, President of the Victorian Veterans Athletic Club on behalf of the organisers said, "Australian Fixed Trusts, the pioneer of unit trusts back in 1956 have built up a reputation of being the most experienced Unit Trust investment organisation in Australia".

"We are pleased to have this major sponsorship assistance from an organisation of the calibre of A.F.T. and we are sure it will help the growth of veteran athletics throughout Australia and will certainly help us to successfully stage the Championships in Melbourne over Easter".

A record entry is anticipated and former Olympic and Commonwealth champions like Dave Power, Trevor Vincent, Judy Follock, Tony Cook, Alby Thomas and Stan Nicholls are expected to be starters.

Australian athletes have performed creditably overseas in World Veterans Games competition and former gold medal winners at this level like John Gilmour (SA), Theo Orr (VIC), Sally Shepherd (VIC), Stan Nicholls (Vic), Jack Stevens (Vic), George McGrath (NSW) are also expected to compete.

Entries for 24 mens and 16 womens events for each of the 10 age categories close on February 14th. The track and field events will be staged at Olympic Park on April 1 - 3 and the cross country, pentathlon, and road walks will be held at Fairfield, Caulfield and Monash University respectively on April 4.

For further information contact the Championships convenor, Mr. Ray Callaghan (Home) 725 5376 or Tom Worrell (Work) 267 1522.

AO A CONTEMPORARY FABLE - UPSTREAM/DOWNSTREAM by D.B.Ardell
 submitted by Mike Boare

It was many years ago that villagers in Downstream recall spotting the first body in the river. Some old timers remember how Spartan were the facilities and procedures for managing that sort of thing. Sometimes, they say, it would take hours to pull 10 people from the river, and even then only a few would survive.

Though the number of victims in the river has increased greatly in recent years, the good folks of Downstream have responded admirably to the challenge. Their rescue system is clearly second to none: most people discovered in the swirling waters are reached within 20 minutes - many in less than 10. Only a small number drown each day before help arrives - a big improvement from the way it used to be.

Talk to the people of Downstream and they'll speak with pride about the new hospital by the edge of the waters, the flotilla of rescue boats ready for service at a moment's notice, the comprehensive health plans for co-ordinating all the manpower involved, and the large number of highly trained and dedicated swimmers always ready to risk their lives to save victims from the raging currents. Sure it costs a lot but, say the Downstreasters, what else can decent people do except to provide whatever is necessary when human lives are at stake.

Oh, a few people in Downstream have raised the question now and again, but most folks show little interest in what's happening Upstream. It seems there's so much to do to help those in the river that nobody's got time to check how all those bodies are getting there in the first place. That's the way things are, sometimes.

- a report on the Sri Chinmoy Triathlon held at Ocean Grove, at 7 am on Sunday, 22nd February, 1985. 70 entrants, 50 starters, 50 finishers.

"Take ten paces forward", came the command, followed by a superfluous, "Are you ready?" A loud whistle blow, a scurry of bare feet on wet sand and we were away on the 1500 metre swim leg of our Triathalon.

Ten minutes in to the roaring surf convinced many to return to shore. Twenty minutes later, a cold chill started to penetrate my thin body and after 50 minutes, I would be hauled from the water suffering from hypothermia.

Round one to the icy waters of Bass Strait.

My handlers (in every sense of the word), Dot Brown and Neil Peachey, together with some sympathetic spectators, tried to revive my frozen frame by stuffing it in a sleeping bag and passing me a cup of life-restoring coffee that my shaking hand spilled all over the place.

Thanks to my compassionate helpers, a level of semi-consciousness was soon restored. They then dressed me in everything warm I had - singlet, t-shirt, skivvy, jumper and parka and sent me on my determined way, on a 54 kilometre bike ride.

They tell me my first 100 metres on the bike was a sight to behold - weaving sideways back and forth across the road with all the co-ordination of a paralytic drunk. I don't remember. What I do remember is pushing my bicycle up a hill and starting to come alive again.

Lots of encouragement now from the marshalls on route, "Keep it up Rob. You're going well".

One lap of eighteen kilometres gone, thirtysix ... to go, getting stronger all the time. Into the last checkpoint, thirty-six kilometres gone, only eighteen more to go now. Up the hill for the last time. Just ahead a couple of girls have finished their bike leg and are already running. I am becoming despondent again with my own performance.

"Good on yer girls", I call out with much admiration, "You're doing great!" "Yes", came the reply, "but we didn't swim".

Confidence restored, I continued to pedal. Finally some 40 minutes later, I rode in to the finish, fully warmed up now, colour back in the face.

Round two to determination and a lot of help from my friends.

Into the 18 kilometre run now, the final leg of the triathlon. We had planned to run at 7 minute mile pace but, once again, thanks to my pacers, Dot and Neil, we increased to 6 minute mile pace, overtook several stragglers, and came in strongly at the finish.

Much applause and congratulations from spectators and people who had shared our earlier battles.

Round three and the match to fitness and fellowship.

It had been a long day, swimming, cycling and running. The 'Dawn at Dawn' had now stretched to 12 noon; our preparation had started at 4 am.

Homeward bound, I was grateful for being physically able to compete in such a grueling event, for all the help and assistance I had received during the day, but most of all to be driving home.

NOTICES OF MOTIONS

I should like to move a notice of motion that the following alterations be made to the constitution of the Victorian Veterans Athletic Club.

Item - 2 - CONSTITUTION.

That the words "Members and Associate Members" be deleted and replaced with the words "Full Members, Secondary Members and Associate Members". This is to correct the wording to agree with alteration to constitution - Annual General Meeting - 24th May 1979.

Item - 4 - AFFILIATION

That the word "Amateur" be deleted.

Item - 6-b. (ii) - MEMBERSHIP

That the words "Amateur Athletic Association of Victoria" be deleted and replaced with the words "Victorian Athletic Association"

This is to cover alteration of the name of the association.

Item - 6 - b.(i) MEMBERSHIP

That the words "Amateurs aged 35 years" be deleted and replaced with the words, "Male amateurs aged 35 years or over and female amateurs aged thirty". This is to include pre-veteran women into membership.

Item - 7 - SUBSCRIPTIONS

That the word "Amateur" be deleted. To cover alteration to name of the Association.

Apart from admitting pre-veteran women into membership, none of the alterations alter the constitution in any way, they are only to correct the wording brought about by the Association changing name.
